IMPORTANT, READ BEFORE SIGNING

INSTRUCTIONS TO APPLICANTS ABOUT CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS: READ THIS BEFORE DISCLOSING ANY CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS

California Applicants: In answering this question do not include: information regarding an arrest or detention that did not result in conviction; information regarding referral to, and participation in, any pre-trial or post-trial diversion program; minor traffic violations; convictions for which the record has been judicially ordered, sealed or expunged; marijuana-related convictions described in California Labor Code Section 432.8 that are more than two years old; misdemeanor convictions for which probation has been successfully completed or discharged and that have been judicially dismissed pursuant to California Penal Code Section 1203.4.

Colorado, Delaware, Illinois, Maryland, New York, Ohio, Oklahoma, Rhode Island, and Virginia Applicants: Do not disclose sealed, erased or expunged convictions.

Connecticut Applicants: Do not disclose erased or fully pardoned convictions.

Hawaii Applicants: Do not answer this question on the application. You will answer this question if you receive a conditional offer of employment.

Massachusetts Applicants Only: Under Massachusetts law, an employer is prohibited from making written, pre-employment inquiries of an applicant about his or her criminal history. MASSACHUSETTS APPLICANTS SHOULD NOT RESPOND TO ANY OF THE QUESTIONS SEEKING CRIMINAL RECORD INFORMATION. With respect to the inquiry herein relative to criminal convictions, an applicant for employment may answer "no record" with respect to any criminal conviction (i) with a sealed record on file with the commissioner of probation or (ii) in all cases of delinquency or as a child in need or services which did not result in a complaint transferred to the superior court for criminal prosecution.

Utah Applicants: Disclose only felony convictions, not lesser crimes.

Washington Applicants: Do not disclose convictions that are more than ten (10) years old.

The filing of an application with Barnes & Noble, Inc. is a preliminary step to employment. It does not obligate Barnes & Noble, Inc. to offer employment, or the applicant to accept employment. An offer of employment, if made, is for employment at will and is not to be construed as a guarantee of continued employment. Barnes & Noble, Inc. reserves the right to terminate the employment of any employee at any time. Any employee also has the right to terminate his or her employment with Barnes & Noble, Inc. at any time.

- I authorize investigation of all matters contained in this application which Barnes & Noble, Inc. may deem relevant to my employment and authorize my previous employers or other persons having information concerning me or my record to report such information to Barnes & Noble, Inc. and such persons are hereby released from all liability for issuing such information. Barnes & Noble, Inc. will keep all such information confidential except where such information is required to be released by law or order of a court or other authority. I understand and agree that I will be subject to immediate dismissal if it is subsequently discovered that the information herein is untrue or that I have failed to disclose a material fact. I understand that if employed by Barnes & Noble, Inc., such employment will occur at will and no contract of employment, expressed or implied, is created and that no representative of Barnes & Noble, Inc. has any authority to enter into any agreement for employment of any specified period of time, or to make any agreement contrary to the foregoing. I understand that if I receive an offer of employment and I accept the position, I will be required to complete additional information necessary for company record keeping requirements.
- NOTICE TO APPLICANTS AS REQUIRED BY THE FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT As part of our employment process, an investigative consumer report, as governed by the Fair Credit Reporting Act or any similar state or local statute may be requested. However, requests will not be made without your prior written authorization.
- NOTICE TO APPLICANTS IN MASSACHUSETTS: It is unlawful to require or administer a lie detector test as a condition of employment or continued employment. An employer who violates this law shall be subject to criminal penalties and civil liability.
- NOTICE TO APPLICANTS IN MARYLAND: Under Maryland law, an employer may not require or demand as a condition of employment, prospective employment, or continued employment, that an individual submit to or take a lie detector or similar test. An employer who violates this law is guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine not exceeding $100.
